

Remembering Kennedy (Barry Goldwater Book 1)

The JFK Remembered series is a collection of historic recorded interviews with associates, inner staff and cabinet members, and opposing politicians who knew the President John F. Kennedy. Each volume details the impressions JFK made on the men interviewed both as a man and as President. In Volume 1, Senator Barry Goldwater discusses with interviewer, Jack Bell his time in the Senate with John F. Kennedy and their opposing positions on different issues, the 1960 presidential campaign, and the Bay of Pigs, among other issues.
