

Pay It Forward (The Authorpreneurs Guide to Publishing Book 7)

Publishing is a team sport. Not only do you need quality service providers like graphic designers and editors, you also need a powerful connection with authors in your genre! Authors are not just readers too, they can be your best partner when it comes to promoting and selling more books. This is the part where authors sometimes forget their beginnings and go for solo-glory. As you have moved through the publishing process and promoted your own work, you have undoubtedly come across various authors in your field. While you may be tempted to use them to convince others to buy your books, remember the major rule for working with your author super-group: Provide value. Now that you have launched, you should start thinking about tangible ways to provide value for your brothers and sisters in publishing. Pay It Forward provides real ways to connect and collaborate with other authors in a clear concise ways that adds value to everyones publications and allows each of you to succeed -together!
