learning social studies. We open our features section with a passionate commentary on "The Importance of Studying History" by Michael Postma. He shares his beliefs that the study of history is vital for humans in creating the future, transmission of cultural literacy, intellectual recognition of patterns, and sharing empathic brotherhood with all peoples. He gives us much to think about. Today's teachers need to engage their students in the study of history and social studies in ways that they will enjoy both teachers and students in order to become the standard bearers of our civilization throughout the new millennium. Successful strategies can be found in "Confessions of a Middle School History Teacher."
