

Article Writing for profit. (How To Write For Profit Book 3)

Hello and welcome. My name is Geoff Norman and I have been writing online for some five years and as I have learned the hard way trying to get my articles published online this book is free of the pitfalls that most writers experience. This is the third and last book in the series How To Write For Profit. In it there is all manner of advice that is an extension to the subjects in books one and two. Although this is a stand alone book all my readers have been advised to acquire all three books in the series simply because in combination they contain a vast amount of knowledge and experience. Inside you will find some sophisticated help on getting really engaged with your readers and have them look forward to your Posts and articles. The key here is getting them to agree with your content and the book tells you how this is achieved. Just take a look at the table of contents below. Welcome to the Writing for profit series.
