

Writing Online. (How To Write For Profit Book 1)

Hello and welcome. My name is Geoff Norman and I have been writing online for some five years and as I have learned the hard way trying to get my articles published online this book is free of the pitfalls that most writers experience. I have umpteen websites that are doing well as a result of my writing and marketing the content. All of the hints, tips, advice and wrinkles are born from my experience so the contents of my books are sound as a bell! In this book you will start the journey that will end when you can confidently make money from your writing skills. It is not enough just to write great copy because you have to know how to market yourself and your messages. You will start the journey that will culminate in your ability to become an online writing rock star. There are all manner of opportunities for talented writers out there and they are covered in full throughout the series. The canny online writers can source and use content that already exists, not to copy it but to re-write it in their own words. So long as the advice given in this book and the others in the series is actually followed, there will be no question about your ability to turn your words into money.
