

Building Fluency through Practice and Performance Professional Development DVD

Featuring fluency expert Timothy Rasinski and Lorrain Griffith, this professional development DVD demonstrates how to improve fluency through performance-based activities. A variety of activities are presented as real students practice to perform naturally and dramatically to build fluency skills as they demonstrate readers theater, choral reading, choral singing, and more! You'll learn how students develop fluency skills and why fluency is strongly connected to reading comprehension. In addition, you'll discover the three things all readers must do to develop fluency, plus connections between fluency and comprehension. A Facilitators Guide and Facilitators Resource CD with templates for Professional Development as well as lessons and scripts shown on the DVD are included.
