

American Evita: Hillary Clintons Path to Power

From the author of The Day Diana Died and The Day John Died comes this riveting New York Times bestseller that offers an in-depth, behind-the-scenes look at one of the most fascinating, and controversial, women in American political history—Hillary Clinton. From the beginning, Hilary Rodham Clinton has drawn inevitable comparisons to Argentinas legendary Eva Perón. Sex, power, money, lies, scandal, tragedy, and betrayal defined the lives of both women. Yet most of what we know about Hillary is seen in the context of her tumultuous marriage to the 42nd President. In the style of his #1 New York Times bestsellers The Day Diana Died and The Day John Died, Christopher Andersen draws on important sources to paint a startling portrait of Americas most controversial woman—the first woman ever considered a serious contender for the presidency. Among the revelations: How U.S. history has been shaped by the arrangement between Hillary and Bill known as The Plan. Important new details about the role Hillary played in the scandalous eleventh hour pardons of armed radicals, drug dealers, tax cheats, embezzlers, money launderers and more. How the outgoing First Lady registered like a bride at a gift store and left the White House with $400,000 worth of gifts belonging to the American people. How JFK Jr. almost thwarted her Senate plans. New details about Hillarys relationship with the late Vince Foster. How Hillary has coped with Bills hundreds of affairs, and the new women in her husbands life. What Martha Stewart did for Hillary, and how Hillary repaid her. Whatever the ultimate judgment of history, the ongoing saga of Hillary Clintons inexorable rise to power continues to stir passions, and to make her the American Evita.
